2019 SOCCER
LSU (2-7-2, 0-2-1 SEC)

The Breakdown

25th Season in LSU History

The 2019 season marks the 25th season in program history for LSU soccer. They are coming off a 2018 campaign that saw them go 13-7-4 and win the first SEC Tournament title in program history. Thursday will mark the 506th match in LSU history. The Tigers have an all-time record of 231-215-59.

Series History - Auburn

LSU’s all-time record against Auburn is 8-17-3. The last two matches in 2018 and 2017 have resulted in nil-nil draws. LSU won four straight matches from 2008 to 2010.

Emma Grace Goldman

Goldman has been up to task this season in net for the Tigers consistently being challenged. Her 69 saves on the season lead the SEC, and she is saving an SEC high 6.90 shots per match. She had one of the all-time great LSU performances in net against Georgia on Sept. 26 as LSU earned a 1-1 draw thanks in large part to her performance. She made 16 saves in that match, the second most in LSU single game history alongside Shelli Montevirgen’s 16 save match against Georgia in 1996. The 16 saves were one short of the LSU school record set by Bonnie Ottillio in 1999 against Oklahoma. Goldman has started 10 matches for the Tigers and has a save percentage of .821 to rank fourth in the SEC; her 16 saves against Georgia are the most by any keeper in the league this season.

Cutura Production Leads to Success

LSU owns an all-time record of 11-0-3 in matches in which senior Marlena Cutura registers an assist or scores a goal. This year she scored a penalty kick against McNeese State (W, 1-0), had two assists against Samford (T, 2-2), and most recently, she had an assist on Sept. 26 against Georgia (T, 1-1). Her four points (1g & 3a) are a team lead. The Samford match was her second-career multi-assist game with her other multi-assist game coming in 2018 against Stetson. She scored her lone goal of 2019 via a penalty kick in the third minute of LSU’s home opener against McNeese State.

SEC History

The Tigers have an all-time record of 87-127-31 in SEC regular season play. LSU won five of the last six SEC regular season games before conference play in 2018. LSU won its first ever SEC Tournament title in 2018 with a win over Arkansas that was decided via penalty kicks in the SEC championship match. A goal by Shannon Cooke in the 72nd minute of the championship match from 40 yards out equalized the contest. The Tigers captured four SEC West regular season titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011) before the league was merged into one group as a whole; in 2008, 2009, and 2011, the Tigers were SEC runners up overall. The 2009 and 2011 clubs registered what is still a program record of eight wins in conference play. Back then, the conference schedule was 11 matches, and in 2019 it is a 10-game conference slate.

Moreau’s Magic

Looking like LSU was headed for its fifth-straight loss on Sept. 26, Maddie Moreau pulled one back for the Tigers with her first career goal in the 86th minute to equalize the match against Georgia. The play was created by senior Marlena Cutura who played a beautiful through ball in behind Georgia’s back line to lead Moreau into the left side of the 18. With Georgia’s keeper dashing at her, Moreau stayed composed and megged the keeper to score the goal. Moreau is LSU’s fifth player to score a goal this season.

Tough Schedule

After Sunday’s match against Texas A&M, opponents that LSU have played this year own a combined record of 72-29-18 for winning clip of .684. Only five other teams in the NCAA have played a more difficult schedule to date. LSU’s final seven opponents that they have yet to play own a combined record of 45-24-9 (.635 winning percentage).
Johnson Nails Gamewinner
Meghan Johnson gave LSU its first win of the season with her first career goal against Navy on Aug. 25. Early in the second OT period, she battled for a ball that was sent in by Shannon Cooke and scooped it off the feet of the Navy defender and then swerved around a charging Navy keeper before putting the finish in the back of the net with her left foot.

Fresh Faces
The Tigers have played as many as seven first-time players on the pitch at once this season. A total of 9 players have made their LSU debuts this season. Maddie Moreau is the lone first-year player to start all 11 matches. Ramrie Noel (10 starts), Emma Grace Goldman (10 starts), Meghan Johnson (8 starts), Anna Rockett (6 starts), Maya Gordon (5 starts), Sydney Lau (1 start), and Maddison Martin (1 start) have all earned the first starts of their career this season as well. Hannah Cuneo (7 matches) and Makenzie Maher (7 matches) have all earned their first playing time for the Purple and Gold this season.

Going The Distance
LSU has yet to lose an overtime match this season. The Tigers are 1-0-2 in overtime matches with the win coming against Navy and the draws coming against Georgia (Sept. 26) and Samford (Sept. 1).

Chiara Ritchie-Williams
Ritchie-Williams will serve as the anchor on the defensive side of things this fall for the Tigers. A 2017 Second Team All-SEC honoree, Ritchie-Williams brings an abundance of experience to what will be a youthful backline in 2019. In 2018, she was a key cog that enabled the Tigers to rack up 10 shutouts during the season which ended up being the second most in a single season in program history. Ritchie-Williams has played in 48 matches to date on the pitch and has started 47 of those contests.

Tiana Caffey
Tiana Caffey scored the second goal of her LSU career and the first of her junior season on Sept. 1 against Samford. Meghan Johnson started the corner kick, and then a shot taken by Cutura was blocked and found the foot of Caffey. The native Port St. Lucie, Fla., nailed a low, right footed shot that stayed low to the ground to score the first goal of the game.

Preseason All-SEC Honorees
Chiara Ritchie-Williams, Tinaya Alexander, Marlena Cutura and Shannon Cooke were named to the 2019 SEC Soccer Coaches’ Preseason Watch List.

Shannon Cooke
Cooke comes back and looks to have a larger presence on the pitch as a sophomore. She played in 19 matches as a freshman, eight of which she started. She saved her only two goals for late in the season at the SEC Tournament. Her spectacular ‘top bins’ goal from nearly 40 yards out in the SEC Championship match in the 72nd minute equalized the match that LSU would go on to win in PKs. Four days prior she scored her first goal of her LSU career in the quarterfinals against Tennessee. All in all, she totaled six points (2g & 2a) as a freshman; her assists came against Florida and South Carolina.

Courtney Henderson/Lindsey Eaton
Courtney Henderson, a redshirt junior from Rogers, Minn., picked up the first assist of her LSU career on Sept. 1, a 2-2 draw against Samford. With LSU trailing 2-1 in the 66th minute, Cutura played a corner kick into the box and Henderson’s head kept the play alive with a header towards the net. After a quick bounce inside the 6 off Henderson’s header, Lindsey Eaton tapped the ball with her toe to put it in the net. It was Eaton’s first goal of the season and the third of her LSU career.

Description
Shannon Cooke played ball deep into Navy territory and Johnson took it off the feet of a charging Navy defender and dodged a charging Navy GK and finished with the left foot from 14 yards (101st minute)
PK conversion after Maddie Moreau started play with an impressive run deep into McNeese territory. She played ball to a streaking Molly Thompson and Thompson was fouled by McNeese keeper resulting in PK (3rd minute)
Meghan Johnson took corner kick. A shot off the foot of Cutura was blocked and then Caffey finished with a low, right-footed shot from 12 yards (10th minute)
Cutura took corner kick and Henderson headed the ball towards net. Eaton then proceeded to toe flick the ball in the net in the midst of a crowd (66th minute)
Cutura sent Moreau in behind Georgia’s back line to left side of the box and Moreau megged the Georgia keeper for her first-career goal (86th minute)
